

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

Quality
Brings
Success

A Few Recent Voluntary Testimonials

On March 18th, 1923, G. H. Hood, Manitoba, Winnipeg, Canada, wrote: "I wish to state that in 1918 I purchased a packet of your original John Baer Tomato and had a crop of the finest tomatoes and captured in four successive years first prize in both amateur and professional class at Winnipeg Garden Show, which is a big affair. I grow nothing but this and Sunrise after trying out several other kinds."

On March 12th, 1923, James E. Coomes, Yaphank, N. Y., wrote: "Whenever I get the chance I tell friends that seed purchased from you has always proved satisfactory."

On March 5th, 1923, Mildred Miller, Baltimore, Md., wrote: "I have found your seeds very successful."

On March 5th, 1923, F. P. Lanover, N. J., wrote: "Had very good success with your seeds last year. The Early Bird Pea is a wonder."

On March 7th, 1923, E. F. Redinger, Grafton, W. Va., wrote: "I have raised your Early Bird Peas and Enormous Bush Lima Beans for market for several years and consider them way ahead of any other I have tried. The demand for them is always greater than I can supply."

On March 5th, 1923, Harry T. Swope, Lovettsville, Va., wrote: "I have used your seeds many years, and always found them satisfactory and cheaper than other firms, but high in quality."

On March 5th, 1923, Theodore Julia, Alex. Bay, N. Y., wrote: "Having had good luck with your seeds last year, will give you another order this year."

On March 3rd, 1923, P. H. Haney, Proffit, Virginia, wrote: "The Fordhook Bush Limas I ordered of you last year were the nicest I ever saw. The weather was dry, but they bore just the same. I sold $13.00 worth, besides eating some, from two pounds of seed, and about half of the blooms dropped off from dry weather. I am sending an order for more."

On March 7th, 1923, A. J. Sowers, Camp Creek, Va., wrote: "The onion sets which I've ordered from you are the finest I've ever grown. Everyone around are wanting your seed book."

On March 12th, 1923, Kilio R. Gilbert, Henderson, Md., wrote: "I take pleasure in recommending your seeds to all gardeners and truckers. I had splendid success with all seeds purchased from you last season."

On February 28th, 1923, Mrs. H. C. Tucker, Middletown, N. Y., wrote: "I just want to say we have been using your tomato seed for 15 years now, and think there is no other as good."

On March 7th, 1923, L. L. Peed, Newland, Va., wrote: "I have tried Garden Seed from several firms, but have had more success with Bolgiano's than any I have tried. Have found them true to name, of strong germination and vigorous growers, and can recommend them to anyone wanting the best in seeds. I have been especially successful with your Early Fortune Cucumbers and California Wax Beans."

On March 9th, 1923, The Drake Plant Co., Norfolk, Va., wrote: "We were very much pleased with the last seed from you."

On March 7th, 1923, Fred M. Dietz, Warren, Mich., wrote: "I recommend your seeds whenever I can, as I always found them very good ever since I started to use them in Maryland in 1914."

On March 5th, 1923, Wallace C. Ougheltree, Dover, Del., wrote: "Am pleased to state that I had wonderful success last season with Bolgiano's Greater Baltimore Tomato Seed, and raised 300 baskets per acre using this variety. Please send me only Greater Baltimore Seed."

*What
We
Have Done
For Others*

*We
Can
Do
For You.*

The J. Bolgiano Seed Co.

Everything for the Farm, Garden,
Lawn and Poultry Farm

Baltimore, Maryland